Intercollegiate Athletics

UCI’s Intercollegiate Athletic Program features 18 sports, with nine men’s teams and nine women’s teams. Men’s sports include baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, tennis, track and field, volleyball, and water polo. UCI’s men’s teams compete in the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I, and the University is a member of the Big West Conference. UCI also competes in the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in men’s volleyball and water polo. The UCI women’s teams also are members of NCAA Division I and the Big West Conference, competing in basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, tennis, outdoor track and field, volleyball, and water polo. Women’s indoor track and field competes in the MPSF.

UCI has captured 27 national team championships in nine different sports since opening in 1965, with 64 individuals winning national titles and 450 earning All-American honors. UCI has won 73 conference championships since 1977. Each spring, the University presents the Big West Scholar-Athlete Award to those student-athletes who maintained a 3.0 GPA over the previous three quarters. In the last 30 years, 3,616 UCI student-athletes have earned the award, including 113 in 2011–12.

In the past six years, UCI has finished in the nation’s top five of the Division I-AAA All-Sports Trophy competition (recognizing athletic achievement among the nation’s 95 Division I non-football schools). UCI has finished second the past two years and was first in 2007.

The mission of UCI Intercollegiate Athletics is to facilitate and enrich the education and personal growth of its students through their participation in competitive NCAA Division I athletics. Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to the welfare of student-athletes and staff, and advocates an environment that promotes excellence in athletic and academic performance, sportsmanship, diversity, and gender equity. Intercollegiate Athletics also supports the University of California’s mission of public service and serves to generate a unifying spirit among students, faculty, staff, and alumni that transcends communities, cultures, and generations.
