

Japanese Language and Literature, Minor

Minor in the Japanese program will give students foundational knowledge needed to pursue a career involving this important Pacific Rim nation. Students will be equipped with linguistic and cultural skills and be prepared in a variety of endeavors, such as international business, law, government service, journalism, teaching, and other careers involved with public affairs.

A. Three quarters of advanced Japanese language instruction, selected from the following:

JAPANESE 3A	Advanced Japanese
JAPANESE 3B	Advanced Japanese
JAPANESE 3C	Advanced Japanese
JAPANESE 100A	Classical Japanese
JAPANESE 100B	Classical Japanese
JAPANESE 101A	Fourth Year Japanese
JAPANESE 101B	Fourth Year Japanese
JAPANESE 115	Japanese Literature: Advanced Texts

B. Select four upper-division courses (or, if the 100A-B sequence or the 101A-B sequence has been chosen, up to two lower-division courses) from the East Asian Studies offerings on Japanese topics.

Residence Requirement for the Minor: A minimum of four upper-division courses required for the minor must be completed successfully at UCI. By petition, two of the four may be taken through the UC Education Abroad Program, providing course content is approved in advance by the appropriate department chair.
